Independent Auditor's Report

The Board of Directors Lombard International Life Assurance Company (Bermuda) Ltd.

Our Opinion

In our opinion, the condensed financial statements of Lombard International Life Assurance Company (Bermuda) Ltd. (the "Company") are prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of the Insurance Act 1978, amendments thereto and the Insurance Account Rules 2016 with respect to condensed general purpose financial statements (the "Legislation").

What We Have Audited

The Company's condensed financial statements comprise:

- the condensed balance sheet as at December 31, 2020;
- the condensed statement of income for the year then ended;
- the condensed statement of capital and surplus as at December 31, 2020; and
- the notes to the condensed financial statements, which include a summary of significant accounting policies.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the condensed financial statements section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Independence

We are independent of the Company in accordance with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (IESBA Code) and the ethical requirements of the Chartered Professional Accountants of Bermuda Rules of Professional Conduct (CPA Bermuda Rules) that are relevant to our audit of the condensed financial statements in Bermuda. We have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the IESBA Code and the ethical requirements of the CPA Bermuda Rules.

Reference: Independent Auditor's Report on the condensed financial statements of Lombard International Life Assurance Company (Bermuda) Ltd. as at December 31, 2020 and for the year then ended.

Emphasis of Matter – Basis of Accounting

Without modifying our opinion, we note that the condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of the Legislation. The accounting policies used and the disclosures made are not intended to, and do not, comply with all of the requirements of International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS").

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged With Governance for the Condensed Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of the condensed financial statements in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of the Legislation, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of condensed financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the condensed financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Condensed Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the condensed financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these condensed financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the condensed financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the condensed financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

1. Shareholder Controllers of the Insurer and Insurer's Affiliates Consolidated with the Insurer

Lombard International Life Assurance Company (Bermuda) Ltd. (the "Company") (formerly Philadelphia Financial Life Assurance Company (Bermuda) Ltd.) was incorporated on March 5, 2012 under the laws of Bermuda and is licensed as a Class C insurer under the Bermuda Insurance Act of 1978 and related regulations. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Lombard International US Holdings, Inc., a Delaware holding company, which is a wholly owned subsidiary of LIA Holdings Ltd. a United Kingdom company. During 2019, LIA Holdings, Ltd. re-domesticated from the Cayman Islands to the United Kingdom. There have been no other changes to the ownership structure during the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019.

2. General Nature of the Risks Underwritten by the Insurer

The Company is in the business of issuing life insurance and annuity products to High Net Worth Individuals (HNWIs). The Company has registered under the Segregated Accounts Companies Act 2000. A separate segregated account of the Company is linked to each life insurance and annuity product issued to each policyholder who requires US compliant private placement life insurance and annuity products.

3. Accounting Standards and Principles on which the Condensed General Purpose Financial Statements are based

Basis of Presentation

The condensed general purpose financial statements have been prepared in conformity with the financial reporting provisions of the Insurance Act 1978, amendments thereto and the Insurance Account Rules 2016 with respect to Condensed General Purpose Financial Statements (the "Legislation"). The condensed general purpose financial statements are based on International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") but are in accordance with the reporting requirements of the Legislation, which varies in certain respects from IFRS. The more significant variances are as follows:

- A statement of cash flow is not included in the condensed general purpose financial statements but is required for financial statements prepared under IFRS;
- A statement of comprehensive income is not included in the condensed general purpose financial statements but is required for financial statements prepared under IFRS;
- The presentation and classification of financial statement line items are in accordance with Schedules IX and XI of the Insurance Account Rules 2016 and differ from the expected presentation and classification under IFRS; and
- The notes in the condensed general purpose financial statements are in accordance with Schedule X of the Insurance Account Rules 2016 and exclude certain disclosures required under IFRS.

4. Accounting Policies

a) Product classification

The Company's products are classified for accounting purposes as either insurance contracts or investment contracts.

Investment Contracts

The Company defines individual and group variable annuity products which do not transfer significant insurance risk as investment contracts. The majority of the business written by the Company is unit-linked investment business and is classified as investment contracts.

Unit-linked investment contract premiums

Investment contract premiums and policyholder contributions received in respect of the investment contracts are treated as policyholder deposits and are not recorded as revenue in the condensed general purpose statement of income. Premiums received for investment contracts are accounted for as deposits and recorded on the condensed general purpose balance sheet within Line 13(b): Segregated Accounts Companies - Long-Term Business - Variable Annuities, with a corresponding liability in Line 36(b) - Segregated Accounts Companies.

Annuity Benefits and Withdrawals

Annuity benefits on investment contracts are recognized when payment is due and are reflected in the condensed general purpose statement of income within Line 21: Long-Term Business Deductions and Expenses – Annuities, net of any applicable reinsurance recoveries.

Policyholder withdrawals from investment contracts are accounted for when payment is due and are deducted from the policyholder account balances reflected in Line 13(b) and on the condensed general purpose balance sheet.

Insurance Contracts

Insurance Contracts are recognized and measured in accordance with US GAAP (Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States of America) which is acceptable in accordance with IFRS 4. The Company adopted IFRS 4, Insurance Contracts on June 30, 2015. IFRS 4, Phase 1 allows for a temporary exemption which allows the Company to use legacy accounting policies. The Company's core insurance products are unit-linked life insurance contracts and are valued in accordance with ASC 944, as permitted in accordance with IFRS 4.

Insurance contracts are those contracts where the Company (the insurer) has accepted significant insurance risk from another party, the policyholder, by agreeing to compensate the policyholders if a specified uncertain future event (the insured event) adversely affects the policyholders. As a general guideline, the Company determines whether it has significant insurance risk, when at least one scenario with commercial substance can be identified in which the Company has to pay significant additional benefits to the policyholder. Once a contract has been classified as an insurance contract, it remains an insurance contract for the remainder of its lifetime.

Unit-linked insurance premiums

Premiums received on unit-linked insurance contracts are treated as policyholder deposits and are not recorded as revenue in the condensed general purpose statement of income. Premiums received for insurance contracts are accounted for as deposits on the condensed general purpose balance sheet within Line 13(c): Segregated Accounts Companies - Long-Term Business - Other, with a corresponding liability in Line 36(b) -Segregated Accounts Companies.

Policy claims and benefits

Death claims related to insurance contracts are presented net of reinsurance recoveries in the condensed general purpose statement of income within Line 17: Long-Term Deductions and Expenses — Claims — Life. Death claims are accounted for on notification of death.

Surrenders are accounted for when payment is due and are deducted from the policyholder account balances reflected in Line 13(c) on the condensed general purpose balance sheet, net of any applicable surrender charges.

Insurance reserves

The Company's policy reserves reflected in Line 22 of the condensed general purpose balance sheet are actuarially calculated reserves representing the present value of expected future benefit payments under the terms of the unit-linked insurance contracts, net of expected reinsurance recoveries.

A reserve for an estimated amount of incurred but not reported death claims is reflected in Line 21 of the condensed general purpose balance sheet.

Policyholder loans

Loans to policyholders are carried at the unpaid principal balance plus any accrued interest. Policyholder loans are fully secured by the policyholder account values on which the loans are made. Policyholder loans are reflected in the condensed general purpose balance sheet within Line 6 - Policy Loans. An offsetting liability is reflected in Line 36(e) — Other Sundry Liabilities — Policy loans collateral, representing the policyholders' account value taken as collateral for the loans to policyholders.

Investment income earned by the Company on outstanding policyholder loans is reflected on the condensed general purpose income statement within Line 31 - Combined Investment Income – Net. Investment income earned by the Company on outstanding policyholder loans is credited back to the benefit of the policyholders, which is reflected on the condensed general purpose income statement in Line 32 – Combined Other Income/Deductions.

b) Revenue Recognition

Investment contract policyholders are charged fees for policy administration and other contract services. The fees may be for fixed amounts, vary with the amount of assets being managed, or vary with the amount of investment contract premiums or contributions received by the policyholder. Such fees are charged as an adjustment to the policyholders' balance. These fees are recognized as revenue in the condensed general purpose statement of income within Line 15 - Long-Term Business Income - Other Insurance Income, in the period in which the services are performed.

Unit-linked life insurance policyholders are charged fees for policy administration and other contract services. Such fees are recognized as revenue in the condensed general purpose statement of income within Line 15: Long-Term Business Income, Other Insurance Income. These fees generally include the following:

- (i). Asset based fees, representing charges to policyholders' accounts for the administration of the assets under administration ("AUA"). Services related to the administration of unit-linked contracts are recognized as revenue as the services are provided.
- (ii). Cost of insurance charges, which represent risk charges to policy holder accounts on a monthly basis and recognized as revenue over the associated risk period.
- (iii). Other contract fees, representing front-end load charges to policyholder accounts primarily resulting from premiums deposited into policyholder accounts.

(c) Reinsurance

Reinsurance contracts are contracts entered into by the Company in order to receive compensation for claims/benefits incurred on contracts written by the Company. For contracts transferring sufficient insurance risk, the actuarial reserves related to unit-linked insurance contracts are reduced by anticipated reinsurance recoverable amounts.

Reinsurance premiums are recognized on the condensed general purpose statement of income within Line 13 - Long-Term Business Income – Premiums Ceded, when payment is due.

Amounts payable in respect of future reinsurance premiums are reported on the condensed general purpose balance sheet within Line 28 - Other Liabilities — Insurance and Reinsurance Balances Payable.

Reinsurance recoveries, in respect of claims on unit-linked insurance contract are accounted for in the same period as the related claim. Amounts recoverable from reinsurers in respect of claims are reported on the condensed general purpose balance sheet within Line 11 - Reinsurance Balances Receivable.

(d) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand, deposits held at call with banks and other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less.

(e) Investments

The policyholder investments held by the Company are initially and subsequently recognized at fair value. Policyholder investments are presented on the condensed general purpose balance sheet within in Line 13(b) - Segregated Accounts Companies - Long-Term Business - Variable Annuities and Line 13(c) - Segregated Accounts Companies - Long-Term Business - Other, with a corresponding liability in Line 36(b) -Segregated Accounts Companies.

(f) Investment Return

Gains and losses and investment income due to unit-linked contracts are credited to the individual policy holder account; as unit-linked contracts bear the investment risk. Such balances are not presented in the condensed general purpose statements of income on a gross basis for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019.

Investment income on cash and cash equivalents and investments of the Company may include dividends and interest. Investments related to cash and cash equivalents and investments of the Company are reported on the condensed general purpose income statement within Line 31 - Combined Investment Income — Net. Realized and unrealized investment gains losses pertaining to cash and cash equivalents and investments of the Company are reported on the condensed general purpose statement of income within Line 36 - Combined Realized Gains (Losses). For the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, there was no investment income or realized and unrealized gains (losses) pertaining to cash and cash equivalents and investments of the Company.

(g) Advances to Affiliates and Amounts Due to Affiliates

Advances to affiliates and amounts due to affiliates primarily represent amounts receivable and payable between the Company and either Lombard International Life Ltd.("LILL"), a sister company and affiliate of the Company, or Lombard International Life Assurance Company ("LILAC"), an affiliate

The Company is allocated certain employee compensation and benefits costs from LILL and LILAC. The Company recognizes these costs in the condensed general purpose statement of income within Line 30(a) - Combined Operating Expense - Personnel Cost, as appropriate, in the period in which the Company receives such services.

(h) Amounts due from Segregated Accounts to General Account

Amounts due from segregated companies represent asset based fees and other contract fees due to the Company from policyholder balances that have been earned by the Company but not yet transferred to the general account. Such balances are netted against Line 36(b) -Segregated Accounts Companies on the condensed general purpose balance sheet.

(i) Income Tax

The Company is not subject to Bermuda income or capital gains tax under current Bermuda law. In the event that there is a change in current law such that taxes on income or capital gains are imposed, the Company and its Bermuda domiciled subsidiaries would be exempt from such tax until March 2035 pursuant to the Bermuda Exempted Undertakings Tax Protection Act of 1966. The Company has made an election under section 953(d) of the Internal Revenue Code to be treated as a U.S. domestic insurance company for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(j) Accounts Payable and Accrued Liabilities

Accounts payable and accrued liabilities generally include incurred and unpaid expenses related to independent audit, actuarial and other services received from outside service providers. The Company recognizes these expenses on the condensed general purpose statement of income within Line 30(a) -

Combined Operating Expense – General and Administration in relation to the period in which the services are performed.

5. Basis of Recognition of Premium, Investment, and Commission Income

The basis of recognition of investment income and commission income are described in Item 4 – Accounting Policies. The Company does not recognize premium income from its unit-linked investment contracts and unit-linked insurance contracts.

6. Currency Translation Method
